Systema Software Selected by Sheakley

SIMS Claims Will Streamline Workers' Compensation Claims Management, Creating Greater Efficiency, Information Sharing, and Service for Customers

Larkspur, CA – May 19, 2014 – Systema Software, a leading provider of claims administration software and services to the insurance industry, today announced that Sheakley, an outsourced human resources firm, has selected SIMS Claims[™] software to support its workers' compensation claims management services.

Angie Wright, Sr. Vice President at Sheakley, commented on the selection: “Our decision to acquire a new workers' compensation claims system was strongly influenced by our commitment to provide customers with the highest level of service. With SIMS Claims, we'll be able to offer clients more information and reporting capabilities. This will not only enhance communication with clients, but also provide them with greater confidence in knowing that their workers' compensation claims are being optimally managed on a daily basis.”

Sheakley chose SIMS Claims because it offered many features the company was looking for, including ease of use, flexibility in configuring workflow processes, comprehensive audit and reporting capabilities, national workers' compensation insurance standards and practices, and seamless integration with existing software.

Jose Tribuzio, CEO of Systema Software, added: “We're excited to be working with a company of Sheakley's caliber. It strives to provide clients with excellent customer service. SIMS Claims will aid in this mission by creating greater efficiencies and quality control practices in its claims management process. Many manual processes can be streamlined, enabling Sheakley's staff to spend less time on routine, administrative tasks, and more time consulting with customers.”
